It is every student's responsibility to behave in a manner that ensures the safety and comfort of passengers and drivers. Expectations of correct behaviour are the same on the bus as at school. This also includes:

Behaving appropriately:

- Respect the needs and comfort of other passengers. For example, there must be NONE of the following:
 - loud noise and unruliness
 - standing up, walking around on the bus, or moving seats
 - fighting, wrestling with or manhandling others
 - placing feet on seats
 - throwing things in or from the bus
 - eating or drinking - except water
- Obey all directions from the driver, such as where to sit.
- Keep arms, legs and heads inside the bus.
- Seat belts MUST be worn at all times.

Respecting property:

- Protect bus property - ensure that the bus is not vandalised
- Report any vandalism to the driver, such as graffiti

Consequences of breaking the Code of Conduct:

If a student breaks this code of conduct the following actions may result in:

- Detentions and/or other in-school punishments.
- Suspension from school for a period of time.
- Loss of travel privileges for a period of time.
- Permanent suspension of travel privileges (may apply for repeated offences).

I/we have read and/or had explained to me this code of conduct. I understand it and I agree that I will obey it. I understand that if I break this code, there will be consequences that may result in the loss of my travel privileges and punishments at school.
